I ordered this book for my wife, who is going to tour Savannah shortly. I think that it is an informative book, but I wish that it had more pictures of the city of Savannah. It is meant to be a small book to carry around while you're touring, so I guess they had to economize on the pictures for this purpose.

This guidebook was very helpful in planning my trip to Savannah and Charleston. It is a nice size that will be convenient to carry while sightseeing. No pictures, but for the price that is ok.

I found this a really useful little pocket book, crammed with helpful information and just enough historical detail to start with. I'd have liked just a few photos in the book to give a flavor of what can be seen. Combining closely-located Savannah and Charleston into one pocket guide is a good idea.

Exceeded my expectations!

Took this on our trip to Charleston. It helped us find some pretty cool places and help us to make our decision to decide which plantation to go to.

The book was very useful for where we were going. We used it to help make decisions for food, lodging and sites. would recommend

I recently went to both Savannah, GA and Charleston, SC. I found the guide very useful with lots of valuable information to offer.

Overall a good book for the money. Easy to slip in to a purse or backpocket and take with you. The descriptions are short, so if you are looking for more about the history, detail, and charm of the area go with the Moon Charleston and Savannah book.
