Customer Reviews

Extremely detailed, and reminds me of elementary school art class! Resulting pictures are lovely, however I agree with prior reviews that this is quite advanced and after a while causes some eye strain. Wooden tool is ok, but point is not precise enough to etch level of detail required on the pictures. I will probably try to use a toothpick on the smaller areas going forward. I could see someone become frustrated if they don't have a lot of patience, as the etching process is very slow-going.

This book is fun & beautiful, you will enjoy bringing this black page into a beautiful piece of art!!!

Great book. My 14-year-old son really likes it. The pieces look really nice when they are done.

This may require some patience and possibly a black flashlight, but if someone likes accomplishing something beautiful, this is for them.

I just love all of these and will be ordering more.

The new craz. Love this totally!!

Very detailed, must have a lot of patience!

Gave as a gift and he loved it
