Love this book! My daughter has the larger ones by Van Fleet (Moo, Cat and Dog). She still has a little difficulty at 18 months with some of the pull tabs, but these smaller books are perfect. The tabs are easy for her to move and she can carry the book around much easier too. Also, the movable parts are thick board book material (except for the mouse's whiskers of course) so she can't mess with them as easily and bend them like she can with the larger books. I would definitely recommend the Sniff, Munch and Lick books to start off with your little one. My daughter loves this book at bed time!

My grandbabies love these books.

Charming artwork and varied tactile experiences for little ones as they touch the animal noses and watch mouse whiskers twitch! This book works for all learning styles -- visual, auditory, or kinetic. Sturdy cardboard construction will hold up well to toddlers who really love their books. Interesting word choices provide excellent opportunities for teaching vocabulary. Targeted for pre-schoolers, but the material would also be good for beginning readers.

Good Product!

Adorable book, nice and sturdy! Lots of textures for baby to feel.

We have bought several books and my 14 months daughter love them. The pages are very easy to turn even for very young one, we got first one when she was 10 months. She remembers what to touch on each page and likes how are the animals moving. This one is good on the go, because is smaller than other books. I would recommend to any parent who want to give a nice, funny book to his child and have a good time together.

The book was in poor condition, not the condition listed. The book is adorable, but since it had missing parts I did not give it to my grandson. Very disappointing!

This is a great book for any 1-2 year old. They are well constructed and can handle the abuse of any child. They are interactive and capture the attention of any small child. Our book is well chewed on and still holds up.
