Roger Priddy left school at 16 with just one qualification – in art. He went to Berkshire College of Art and Design and trained as an illustrator. His first job in children's books was working with the publisher Peter Usborne, at Usborne Publishing, and then he worked with Peter Kindersley at Dorling Kindersley, where he spent 16 years. Priddy became Creative Director of DK's Children's Division and was Managing Director of the children's mass market publisher Funfax when it was acquired by DK. In 2000, he created Priddy Books with John Sargent at St Martin's Press to create innovative and imaginative titles for children, from first books for babies through early reference titles for older children. Since then, over 30 million copies of Roger's 200 plus books have sold worldwide, with five of his books – My Big Animal, My Big Truck, Happy Baby Words, Happy Baby Colors and Puppy and Friends – each selling over one million copies. He is also the author of Big Board First 100 Words; Big Board Books Colors, ABC, Numbers, and Bright Baby Noisy Monsters. His creativity has been recognized with numerous industry awards. Priddy lives in London with his wife Zena and their four children.

My two year old enjoys these books but he might've liked them even more at a younger age because they are very simple. The textures are only on some of the pages too instead of every page. If you buy other books from this brand these will seem redundant.

My son has enjoyed these books since he was 9 months. He's 17 months now. I will say that the touch and feel part was a bit disappointing to me. It's just one small section on each page. And it seems as though, after a while they run out of ideas for textures. However, to give credit to the product- we are talking about newborns and babies. So simplicity can actually be a good thing as your child acclimates his/her self to the new world.

The books are sturdy and have nice pictures, but to advertise them as touch and feel books is misleading. About 3 pages per book are actually textured while the rest are merely colorful pictures or are shiny.

I'm very pleased with the quality of these books. The pages are nice and thick, not flimsy cardboard like a lot of other board books we have in our collection. The colors are bright, the "touch and feel" is engaging and the pictures are things that excite little kids. I would recommend this set as the perfect non-toy baby shower or first birthday gift.

These books were so disappointing. There isn't much to "touch or feel" and most of what is there is just shiny paper. I recommend spending your money on different touch and feel books.

I had a different set of these for my 2.5 year old and she still looks at them, so I wanted to get my 6 month old a different set of her own. Each book has a bright picture and something to touch and I have no idea why they are so appealing but my 6 month old is mesmerized by them. She holds them herself and is every trying to turn the pages herself.

10 month old son loves them! Very happy with our purchase!
