The Cordax Mondotta (The Adventures Of Avery Avedaan Book 1)

Synopsis

Meet Avery Avedaan, galactic treasure hunter and sexual omnivore. An Indiana Jones for the 25th Century! When Avery and his extraterrestrial crewmates Sharr and Zeeto are hired to find an ancient starship known as the Cordax Mondotta, it only takes minutes for things to spiral out of control. With several people literally gunning for him and alliances shifting at every turn, Avery hurries to find the lost ship... with a few dalliances along the way. However, he soon realizes that there are some things that maybe shouldn't be found. The Cordax Mondotta is a 63,000 erotic space opera novella featuring a larger than life adventure hero who has never met a job he couldn't pull off or an alien he couldn't seduce. The adventures of Avery Avedaan will continue.

Customer Reviews

I'm friends with the author and let me tell you about this book. I love colorful science fiction like Guardians of the Galaxy or the Fifth Element. This book is a wonderful combination of that and I just love the misadventures Avery gets himself into. The sex scenes are really good and juicy. One made me laugh but I won't spoil it. The sex felt rather natural and flowed with the situations rather well. Also Sharr and Zeeto are like my favorites. This story has the right amount of sex, story, and comedy to fulfill that itch. Read this book.

Disclaimer: I'm friends with the author! So! The Cordax Mondatta is the first of a series of science fiction novel romps about Avery Avedaan, a human treasure hunter in an exotic, far future galaxy. When he gets caught up in the hunt for an ancient alien starship, he finds himself surrounded by people who want him dead. Fortunately, Avery and his friends, Sharr and Zeeto, are cunning, clever, and damn good shots. The plot is fast paced and well constructed, leading towards a thrilling and satisfying conclusion. The world building is definitely on the Star Wars end of the spectrum of soft to hard science fiction, with more focus on exotic locals and sexy alien races than on the scientific details of the universe...but, like Star Wars, there is a great deal of curious details dropped about the history of the universe that are left for future expansion. Now, on to what everyone is really here for... The erotic elements in this book sizzle. There are some astoundingly sexy and creative encounters between Avery and a wide range of beautiful alien women (and a few alien men.) The descriptions never stray into purple prose or hideous analogies (hint: never use the term "baby batter" ever unless you want to turn the scene into a joke) and the focus remains on the characters involved, not merely the mechanics of the sex. Also, and this may just be my personal opinion, but it's deeply refreshing to see a book wherein someone who believes in free love and open relationships isn't shamed or shown to be "wrong" in their attitudes towards sex. Sometimes, it is good to just connect with people and not every time you have sex HAS to be some deep important romantic thing. So, TLDR: buy this book, read about sexy aliens, and make "pew pew" laser noises during every fight scene.
