No planning required! Need a day away to relax, refresh, renew? Just get in your car and go! This thoroughly revised and updated new edition of Day Trips from Phoenix, Tucson, and Flagstaff is your guide to hundreds of exciting things to do, see, and discover right in your own backyard. With full trip-planning information and tips on where to eat, shop, and stop along the way, you can make the most of your time off and rediscover the simple pleasures of a day trip. Explore places you never knew existed, many free of charge, and most within a two-hour drive of Phoenix, Tucson, or Flagstaff. Do something artsy: Browse Scottsdale's more than 125 art galleries and crafts boutiques, or pop into the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art. Do something underground: Explore a magnificent living cave system at Kartchner Caverns State Park; a rare opportunity for amateur spelunkers. Do something educational: Experience Native American history at Tuzigoot National Monument, where you can view the ruins of a Sinaguan village and learn more at the onsite museum.

I bought this book in a little shop in Scottsdale several years ago and have lent it my new neighbors, (transplants from California) several times. It's great for newcomers to Arizona who want to explore new areas not far from home.. almost like a staycation. She liked it so much that she tried to find it in bookstores in the Phoenix/Scottsdale area, but never could find it. I found it on Amazon and decided to buy it for her for Christmas. It was a most welcome gift.

We just relocated to Arizona and love this book! Has good information - and good ideas for day trips. Without it we would not even have known of some of the places. Great for vacationers and newbies!

this is a great book for day drives where we live in arizona

Has some good trail

I found this on a sale table at Changing Hands bookstore--what a great find! I absolutely love day trips, and as Arizona has such a diverse landscape, no two trips are alike. I'm really excited to see Monument Valley as well as the canyons in Page. I can't believe I've lived here my entire life without paying them a visit!
