Customer Reviews

This is such a cute selection of short stories for children ages 4 - 8. Chompy decided to be a vegetarian and his family made fun of him. He left home and luckily for him he bumped into (should say swam into a swordfish named Buzz. Buzz was so happy to be able to talk with a shark that a great friendship was formed. The rest of the short stories feature Chompy, Buzz, Jilly the Jellyfish, Slick the seal and Flashy Starfish. I laughed at loud at some of the humor in this one. One that made me laugh was when Jilly was awarded the starring role in a play. She was to perform 'Jelly Lake'. How cute is that? On a serious note, Chompy was picked on for being a vegetarian and he does make lots of new friends that love him for being a shark. Chompy also has a wonderful quote 'sometimes the things we want most are also the scariest'. There are also a couple of Just for Fun Activities included. Most highly recommended.

The story is Good, but I guess it needs more pictures for kids to be interested. I believe that we all know that kids are quick to be bored with just plain stories.

This is a fun book. My first grader liked the story and could read most of it with a little help. I would have liked it to have some pictures and fewer words per page as a full page of words is a little daunting at this point. Might be too easy/short for more advanced readers who aren't still interested in pictures.

This was a well written children's story. Who could dislike old Chompy? It must be tough to put out stories with a message in the minefield of wishy wash PC culture of today. Well done. PS- my grandkids loved the jokes in the back of the book.

The little guy enjoyed this book quite a bit! He said "it was a fun and interesting story". AND responded with "Oh, yeah!" when I asked him if he'd read it again. I'm glad I got it.

Well written, my daughter loved it! She could read along with me as we went. We have enjoyed the whole series as reading homework for kindergarten this fall.

Your books are always such a hit with my kids, Arnie! They love the humour and the stories. Keep writing and adding joy to the world!

Very cute stories. Our daughter just loved all of them, especially Flashy.
