Musical Robot is a ukulele and drum combo made up of Jason Adair and Scott Namanny. They are programmed for fun! Combining songs, storytelling, puppetry, and out of this world dance moves, Musical Robot is ready and willing to provide opportunities for kids to engage in fun and frolic. They are based in Sacramento, California, but you can visit them at <http://musicalrobotlovesyou.wordpress.com/> David A. Carter is the creator of the bestselling Spot the Dot app, as well as the bestselling Bugs books, One Red Dot, and many other books for children. He lives in Auburn, California, with his wife and two daughters.

Bought this for my grandson's 1st birthday. He loves it! Loves the song and the action of the book. He can't operate it himself yet, though -- just would tear it. Even my 6-year-old grandson might be a little rough when operating it.

I bought this for my youngest grand daughter after seeing one of the "Musical Robots" performances! She loves them! She also loves the book! We have several of David Carters pop-up books, but this one is more colorful and produced more giggles with each pop-up movement. Nice illustrations and a fun song to play while we look at the book.

Great book! Lots of fun! Comes with free song you can download. Made a perfect thank you gift for my daughter's pre-k teacher to add to her class library.

Such a fun book for my little one to enjoy! Creative way to make a book too!

I bought this book for my 5 year old and 2 1/2 year old grandchildren. They love it! Given a choice of which of our books to read before nap, this book is first choice. The only negative is the tabs which are difficult to manipulate without damaging or tearing them. I have had to repair several with tape. Needless to say, once taped the robots don't perform as nicely. Hopefully the book will outlast the children's interest!

Purchased as a gift for a two year old. Heard the authors on national public radio and knew I had to get it. I really enjoyed the book and the free music that goes with it.

My 2-year old son loves listening to the free song while following along with the robots in the book

(instructions to listen to it online are included). The pop-outs are great quality so can handle some "abuse" from being used by a not-so-gentle toddler. But not too much abuse - so you have to supervise them. Really fun song. He laughs whenever the robot jumps and beeps.

My 16 month old loves this book very much!
