Customer Reviews

The authors rave about the artisanal shops in Oltrarno. All we saw were drab storefronts with horrifically expensive wares. The "handmade" shoes were ugly, and there were much better deals near the Central Market. It doesn't seem as if the information has been updated recently. I saw a copy of the Rick Steve guide at a book store near the Academy-- even with a quick perusal, I found more useful information.

Will be great asset to take with me in my purse when I am traveling this fall.

Wonderful emphasis on neighborhoods. Especially useful if you have more time in the area and plan to do some walking and making visits to site in addition to or instead of museums. There is so much more to see and do!

Very small and compact book, travels well, still has enough info to be helpful

Excellent guide about Florence and other places in Tuscany

Great Resource for our adventure in Florence and surrounding area! Informative, easily fits in a pocket or purse and the full size pull out map was a GREAT bonus!

This guide is the best. Very helpful and current.

It is laid out nicely and I will be brining it with me this summer for my trip to Italy.
