What Was Hurricane Katrina?

Synopsis

On August 25th, 2005, one of the deadliest and most destructive hurricanes in history hit the Gulf of Mexico. High winds and rain pummeled coastal communities, including the City of New Orleans, which was left under 15 feet of water in some areas after the levees burst. Track this powerful storm from start to finish, from rescue efforts large and small to storm survivors' tales of triumph.

My 8 year old twins were assigned a book from the what, where or who series. I chose Hurricane Katrina because of where we live, as well as the summer is hurricane season. The book was very informative without scaring the kids about how devastating weather can change an entire area and lives. This was extremely helpful because 2 weeks later our entire area was completely flooded...family and friends were we relocated, losing homes and most of their life's possessions. The twins understood the importance of listening, staying calm and preparing when mother nature takes a drastic turn.

This series is great. They are very informative. Great for 4th and 5th graders.

It was a good bookIt was a fun bookIt was a good book to learn new things and awesome

Excellent, as described. Very nice way for young children to learn about Hurricane Katrina.
