One of the all-time champion worriers returns in Merry Christmas, Stinky Face by Lisa McCourt, illus. by Cyd Moore. Here Stinky Face challenges his unflappable mother to come up with contingency plans for various possible emergencies: "What if Santa landed on our roof, and one of his reindeer got his antlers stuck in the tree that hangs over my bedroom window?" Ages 4-8. Copyright 2002 Reed Business Information, Inc. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

PreSchool-Grade 1-In this fourth title about the habitual worrywart, the child is full of incessant questions about Christmas and Santa. What if one of the reindeer gets his antlers stuck in the trees? What if Santa's boots fall off? What if he gets chapped lips from all that flying? As in previous titles, the boy's mother reassures him with creative, exaggerated, and humorous solutions. In a satisfying ending, Santa is left a plate of cookies and a few emergency supplies that he might need. Moore's delightful watercolor cartoons are an integral part of the story's success. The pictures may be too small to carry for storytime, but work well for one-on-one sharing.-M. W. My four-year-old son loves the stinky face books. He enjoys the colorful pictures, funny dialog, and interesting story. I'll find him in his little reading nook with this book on his lap more times than not. They are cute books for everyone but toddler boys in particular.

Nice bedtime story about an ever questioning child and a tolerant, ever explaining mom. Just the phase my 4 yr old is in Bought this because my kids absolutely love the original stinky face book. This doesn't disappoint. Very fun to read. My toddlers love it!

We love stinky face and this book was just as great!

Cute story. Purchased as a Christmas present.

My grandson enjoys this book.

Ok story

The story was strange and I didn't think it flowed well. Illustration was nice and colorful and may be the only redeeming factor. I bought it because of the high rating and then my son received it again as a gift, so I now have 2 copies of a book I'll never read to him again. Oh well.
