Customer Reviews

This was a ridiculous book. I almost thought that a camera was gonna come out and say "We gotta ya". I could get all this information on a 2 page review from any travel magazine. This is almost a crime to sell this book. DO NOT BUY IT! I don't even know what else to say, I am speechless after this. No good info at all.

The book is 40 pages, only 30 have actual content but the font is so big there isn't much to read. I just got through the whole thing in 10 mins

Very short read - not very in depth. The free info they give you at the airport covers most of the same things.

I was disappointed at the lack of detail in this book. It gives a very limited explanation of the highlights in Aruba; while it may be informative for a first time visitor I would want even those to have a much more in depth overview of everything this wonderful island has to offer. So many incredible restaurants, places to stay and things to do are left out. Aruba is a place where people seem to go again and again, it is common to find those who have visited 20 and 30 times... We have been 15 times ourselves. Do yourself a favor and get a guidebook that is comprehensive... You won't regret it.

Contained many useful facts for someone traveling for the first time or is new to traveling to different countries and cultures.
