Melbourne - 14 Days In The Most Livable City In The World?

Synopsis

Greg sold everything and left his family and friends behind in Vancouver. Now he arrives from Auckland New Zealand with his suitcases, camera gear, and dreams to experience Melbourne. Greg spends 14 days living like a local in Melbourne, filming, and asking whether Melbourne really is the most livable city in the world? He begins living with Airbnb locals getting a taste for the lifestyle in the South Bank area and then going on to explore sights, sounds, and tastes of downtown Melbourne. Exploring the graffiti alleys of Hosier lane, sampling pour over coffee at Market Lane, or enjoying a glass of wine at a local Jazz and wine bar. He meets his family friend Melissa and they visit the colorful houses of Brighton beach and taste some of the best pies at Skyhigh Mount Dandenong. Greg visits the Victoria market and the infamous Rod Laver stadium, home of the Australian Open. He takes us out of the city onto the Melbourne coast on the Great ocean road tour for a day long road trip seeing koala's and sights like the twelve apostles. Learn and experience Melbourne through Greg's story. In this book Greg uses plenty of imagery as well as twitter posts he made during the actual trip to capture the detail of the key moments. Throughout the books tips and useful links are provided. Special links will be provided with actual video footage from the book.
